Mr. R. J. Madry Gives Annual Dinner.

Mr. R. J. Madry, one of the leading business men of the town, and one of the large and successful farmers of the community, gave his annual farmers' dinner at his splendid home near town Thursday. A large number of invited guests gathered in the forenoon and spent a pleasant hour in conversation in the cool shade of the large and beautiful Misses Mattie Haislip and Eron grove. Fine fruits of peaches, apthe company, and at the dinner hour the great gathering was invited to the long and well loaded tables to enjoy a feast fit for a king. Everything was in perfect order with minute arrangements for the comfort of each guest. Each place at the table was supplied with a tempting dish of Brunswick stew and a well filled plate of choice, old-time barbecue, bread, cake, pickles and other things to complete the bountiful repast were supplied in abundance. Such a dinner is rarely seen and enjoyed under such favorable surroundings. Besides a large number of Mr. Madry's relatives and friends from Rocky Mount, Tarboro and other places a goodly number of his neighbors, including ladies and gentlemen from the town and the community, were present to enjoy > Full two hundred persons partook of the great dinner so bountifully prepared and splendidly served by Mr. and Mrs. Madry. Throughout the day it seemed that personal attention was given to each guest and each one felt that it was a dinner especially prepared for him. For a number of years the Madry dinner in August has been a marked feature in the social life of this community and the occasion of Thursday surpassed in excellence all former dinners given by Mr. Madry. Every guest departed with much praise for Mr. and Mrs. Madry as ideal entertainers.

The following relatives and friends of Mr. Madry from out of town attended the dinner: Mrs. Josephine
